Wistariahurst offers sensory friendly Sunday fundays

HOLYOKE – Wistariahurst Museum is delighted to welcome friends and families into the halls once a month for Sensory Friendly Sunday Fundays. Starting on Feb. 9, the halls will be open to guests to stop by and enjoy from noon to 3 p.m. for an afternoon of fun activities. Discover the wonders of the first floor at Wistariahurst Museum and explore each captivating room, beginning with the elegant marble lobby and continuing to the enchanting music room, all while utilizing our informative guide pamphlets in English and Spanish. Throughout the first floor, guests of all ages can interact with activities curated with our friends with sensory sensitivities in mind. Our music room will be filled with fun gross motor activities that will get everyone hopping, moving, and excited with hula hoops, hopscotch, bounce balls, and so much more! Throughout the first floor, children will be able to interact with fine motor activities, puzzles, and board games to engage with and enjoy.

Staff are on the lookout for Winston the Wisty Lion and need help. Winston is sleeping somewhere in the museum, but we can't find him. During a self-guided tour, keep eyes open for the lethargic, little lion.

The Sensory Friendly Sunday Fundays provide an excellent opportunity for families with sensory sensitivities to experience the museum in a relaxed environment at their own pace. Wistariahurst is thrilled to host these monthly open hours, allowing families to explore, discover, and connect with the museum. This is why these events will be free and accessible to the public for all to enjoy.
